

RIVER POETRY

Thank you to the following poets-- and all the artists—whose love of nature informs and inspires...

Philip Watson Kuepper

Longtime Mystic resident Philip is the author of the poetry collection, A Sea to Row By, published by Hear the Boat Sing in December 2015.

Chuck Wehner

Chuck is a lifetime resident of Groton who retired from Electric Boat and now spends his time on amateur radio and hiking.

Emily Dickinson

1830 - 1886

Emily Elizabeth Dickinson was an American poet and Massachusetts native, little known during her life, but since regarded as one of the most important figures in American poetry.

Samuel Taylor Coleridge

1772 - 1834

Coleridge was an English poet, literary critic, philosopher & theologian
who, with his friend William Wordsworth, founded the Romantic Movement and was a member of the Lake Poets.

Expand your enjoyment of poetry and river themed literature, courtesy of local independent bookstore Bank Square Books

<https://www.banksquarebooks.com/worldriversday20>