The Trails Coordinating Task Force held their first meeting on Thursday, January 24. 14 people attended, half of whom were Town of Groton employees from various departments. The others included representatives from GOSA, the Copp property, Avalonia, the Tri-Town trail, and Groton Utilities. Mark Berry outlined four goals and a calendar was established. Members were asked to do research on signage for the next meeting. Attendees seemed very positive and my impression was that this meeting was a huge success.
