2. Sec. 7-31. - Notice of violation; fines.

Payment may be made either in person at the police headquarters or by mail addressed to police headquarters and postmarked before the end of the fourteenth or the end of the thirtieth day period, as the case may be. The Police Chief may designate other acceptable means of payment from time to time, provided he gives prior written notice thereof to the Town Council. If such owner/operator does not pay the full amount of the fine before the end of the thirtieth day after the notice was placed on the vehicle, the police department shall cause such owner or operator to be prosecuted for such violation in the court having jurisdiction of such violations.
