

Connecticut's Alamo! Ft. Griswold, Groton

Outnumbered Connecticut farmers and their sons fought to the death to protect their homeland.

Thursday June 21, 2012 10 am

Groton Senior Center

102 Newtown Road

Hear a Connecticut Historian tell the story of the courage and the treachery which occurred that day.

Thomas Berrill is a Connecticut historian with a Bachelors Degree from Charter Oak College, specializing in Connecticut History. He is President of the Institute of Connecticut History, a Historical Interpreter at the Noah

Webster House and The Keeler Tavern and also utilizes his skills at the Harriet Beecher Stowe House in their Collections Department.