

Groton Town Police Press Release

02/03/12

In an effort to reduce the number of injury producing crashes occurring on our highways, the Groton Town Police Department will be staffing additional patrols on Super Bowl Sunday, dedicated to OUI enforcement. It is the goal of the Groton Town Police Department to address the major contributing factors of injury producing crashes, such as Speed, Operating Under Influence, and Failure to use Occupant Restraint Systems, and dedicated patrol operations is one way that we accomplish this.

These additional patrols will be focusing on Operating Under the Influence, as well as, Distracted Driving, Speed, and Occupant Restraint Use.

We wish everyone an enjoyable game. We encourage all to drive safely and wear your seatbelts, and "Drive Sober, or Get Pulled Over".

Lt. John W. Varone
Detective Commander
Groton Town Police Department
