“The Slave Catcher’s Woman”

“This book will be remembered for what it says about race, humanity and the good that is within people”*

James Littlefield, a registered speaker for the Connecticut Civil War Speaker's Bureau and author of a regular history column in the monthly "Post Road Review," is also a well-known Civil War re-enactor whose portrayal of ex-slave catcher Coswell E. Tims has inspired the writing of his first novel.
